

SMT will become American Express Global Business Travel on October 29th

Soon SMT will have a name that is well-known all over the world: American Express Global Business Travel.

As a part of the integration process, on Monday October 29, SMT will change its name to American Express Global Business Travel (GBT) according to their new owner. They will use the new name in their marketing and services. Still, behind the international name there are your dedicated Finnish travel counselors and other contact people available.

What will change on Oct 29, 2018

- The name of the company and services will be American Express Global Business Travel (GBT). The telephone services will answer with the new name.
- The website and Travel Portal will be available at www.amexglobalbusinesstravel.fi. The new web address will be functional from Oct 29 but the old smt.fi address will be automatically directed to the new address. The same portal and online booking service will be at your disposal.
- Their legal name from Oct 29 will be GBT Finland Oy. This name will appear from that day on in their invoices and legal documents as well as in the Trade Register. The business ID and invoicing address remain the same.

What will not change?

- The telephone numbers and email addresses will remain the same. We hope that you are already using the @amexgbt.com email addresses.
- The same familiar travel counselors and other contact people will be still helping you.
- Your existing bookings and online services remain the same.
- You log in to your Travel Portal at the new website with the existing user name and password.
- GBT Finland Oy's business ID will remain the same, as well as the current contracts.
